

Dr Lukoye Atwoli

Nationality: Kenyan

Languages: Fluent in English and Swahili

Marital Status: Married

Licensed by the Kenya Medical Practitioners and Dentists' Board

Current Status

- Lecturer in the Department of Mental Health, Moi University School of Medicine
- Consultant Psychiatrist at Moi Teaching and Referral Hospital (MTRH)
- In-Charge of Mental health Services at Centre for Assault Recovery- Eldoret (CAR-E) (a specialized centre for sexual and gender-based violence)

Achievements

- Chaired the Protection Cluster Working Group (dealing with broad protection issues including mental health and psychosocial support, early warning systems, legal support, advocacy, gender issues, tracing and reunification, child protection, security etc) in the North Rift During the intervention for survivors of the Post-Election Violence (Jan 2008-July 2009), and protection monitoring for the referendum, August 2010.

- Participated in the development of Kenya's Mental Health Policy
- Development of the National Disaster Management Policy
- Development of the National Policy on internal displacement
- Development of the Policy framework on the National Values for Kenya
- Co-wrote the Kenya Psychiatric Association Position Paper on Constitutional Review (2010)
- Development and review of various undergraduate and postgraduate curricula at Moi University School of Medicine
- Writing numerous articles in the National Press on socio-political issues, including the Constitutional review process (2007- current)

Summary of qualifications

- M.Med. Psych. (Nairobi) 2006
- M.B. Ch.B. (Moi) 2001
- Certificate in Medical Informatics (1999), Indiana University School of Medicine

Additional Training

- Course on Leadership and Professional Development for Young Psychiatrists, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia (April 2006) and Nairobi, Kenya, (March 2007)
- Training on Mental Health Services after Disaster, Hyogo Institute for Traumatic Stress, Kobe, Japan (December 2006)
- International Summer School on Tropical Medicine, Suez Canal University, Ismailia, Egypt, July 2000

Personal website

<http://www.lukoyeatwoli.com/>