

PROFILE

REBECCA NABUTOLA, CBS

The Permanent Secretary for the Ministry of Tourism

Education:

She holds a BA Hons from University of Nairobi, a Diploma in International Relations from Institute of Social Studies, Hague, Netherlands.

Post Graduate Diploma in International Relations and Development.

She attended Kenya High School, Nairobi and attained East African Advanced Certificate of Education.

Special Awards: - Moran of Burning Spear (MBS) (2001) and CBS (2005).

Working Experience

- 31st January 2003: to date: Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Tourism & Wildlife (now Ministry of Tourism)
- 26th March 2002: Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- November, 2000 to March, 2002: Chief of Protocol, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- 1995 - 2000: First Secretary and later Counsellor and Deputy Head of Mission Kenya High Commission, London
- 1991 - 1995: Served in various capacities at the Ministry Headquarters including Desk Officer, Asia and Australia and Europe & Commonwealth Divisions, and as Senior Protocol Officer, Protocol Department
- 1985 - 1990: Third, and later second secretary, Kenya High Commission, Ottawa
- 1982 - 1985: Joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and served at Ministry Headquarters in various capacities including Desk officer, Middle East Division, Americas Division and Africa & OAU Division

Source: Ministry of Tourism
May 7 2009